

Foreday Morning: Selected Prose, 1946-1986 (Longman Caribbean Writers Series)

This book contains a selection of short stories and articles reflecting the life of one of the pioneers in Caribbean writing. Dating from 1946 to the present day, the stories, until now unpublished, acquaint the reader with Trinidadian life and the beauty of the Caribbean. Sam Selvon began his career as a journalist in Trinidad, and went on to establish himself as a writer of novels, short stories, radio and television plays and filmscripts. The Longman Caribbean Writers series comprises many classic novels, short stories and plays by the best known Caribbean authors, together with works of the highest quality by new writers
