

Whats For Ye Wont Go By Ye

Between the Generations there is a story...The story follows the life of two generations of the MacGregor family through the eyes of Linda, Douglas MacGregors daughter. Beginning in the Possilpark area of Glasgow in 1950 when Linda is two years old, the novel traces the familys struggles though the first part of the 20th Centuryfrom the hardships of the 1930s and love story between her parents, Douglas and Margie, through the terrifying war years of the 1940s.World War II seriously affected many soldiers and their families. Men sacrificed up to 6 years of their lives defending the UK from Nazi oppression. Some were killed in action, others spent the rest of their lives hospitalised, and the lucky ones were left with their nightmare memories. Douglas MacGregor was one of the lucky ones. He never spoke of his horrific war experiences. Instead, he turned to drinking to erase the pain and took his torment out on the ones he loved mosthis family.Whats For Ye, Wont Go By Ye tells how families at home survived in spite of the constant fear of German air bombing raids. It covers the peaceful post-war 1950s. It reflects on the on-going Glasgow conflicts between Protestants and Catholics, Rangers and Celtic. It ventures into the magical 1960s. The Glasgow sense of humour shines through in this story, along with the emotion of the times.Whats For Ye, Wont Go By Ye is not just a novel, but a trip into the hearts and minds of our parents and grandparentsinto their personal demons, courage, and triumphs.
