The 2013 La Jolla Concours d'Elegance attracted more than 150 cars. Automotive Travelers Editorial Director Richard Truesdell attended and compiled this photo album book. Held at Ellen Browning Scripps Park on the shores of the Pacific Ocean, the event kicks off the 2013 concours season on the West Coast, coming as it does a month after the Amelia Island Concours d'Elegance. This year the winner of Best of Show, prewar, was the 1937 Bugatti Type 57 cabriolet with coachwork by Paul Nee owned by Paul Emple. The winner of Best of Show, postwar, was the 1954 Mercedes-Benz 300SL Gullwing owned by Russell and Elena Hook
