

The Biblical Doctrine of Regeneration

This eBook comes complete with an active linked Table of Contents, making navigation quicker and easier. The following are carefully selected essays on the doctrine of regeneration from the history of the church, In a recent interview,

J.I. Packer was asked which theological issues he would commend young Christian leaders to study in order to be prepared for the next fifty years. His number one answer was Regeneration. He said that the doctrine of regeneration has not been fully appreciated by many who do not understand that to be born again with a new heart and new nature means that we have at our deepest level a new identity and new passionate desires for Gods Word and ways. He commended to all young Christian leaders a thorough study on the doctrine of regeneration. This eBook has aggregated the following resources with this very thing in mind. Table of Contents
