

A Critical Evaluation of the Suitability of Karl Rahners Sacramental Ecclesiology for a World Church (Distinguished Dissertations Series)

This study examines the critical issues, both internal and external, confronting the post-Vatican II Church. It evaluates Karl Rahners sacramental ecclesiology for a world Church, and includes an analysis of the historical and theological roots of Rahners ecclesiology and its development and appropriateness as a strategic theology for a world Church. The book aims to treat Rahners complex writings in a clear, straightforward fashion, and to clarify the insights of this theologian understandable to the informed Christian.
