

Papers on practical religion

It will be observed that these papers are mostly the reports of addresses delivered at various times, in various places where Grod has called me to witness ft)r Him. I have frequently been asked to publish them in one volume by those who have listened to me with thankfulness to Grod and profit to themselves. Compelled in great measure to desist for a season from public speaking by bodily infirmity, I seize the opportunity to repeat on paper what I have been privileged to express in (to me) brighter days. I pray that I may thus be allowed to continue my testimony against the attempt, now so prevalent, to serve both God and mammon, and to warn and teach everyone to flee from the wrath to come by avoiding every sin and the very appearance of evil, and by devoting themselves without reserve to the service of God and the y.V ilvati(jn of the world jand I trust that He who has given to me these thoughts and words may restore to me the power to speak again, and to speak more lx)ldly still.(Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and dont occur in the book.)About the Publisher Forgotten Books is a publisher of historical writings, such as: Philosophy, Classics, Science, Religion, History, Folklore and Mythology.Forgotten Books Classic Reprint Series utilizes the latest technology to regenerate facsimiles of historically important writings.
