

After the Snow Falls

In the middle of a soccer drill, in an awful, awkward moment, Celia Bennetts eight-year-old son Caleb lands on his face and chest in the grass. The diagnosis blindsides her, bringing her face-to-face with every parents worst nightmare. As Celia faces despair, hope walks in on the most unlikely set of legs, when her father returns after a 30-year absence. Can she release pain to embrace hope? Will it make a difference, or is it too late?
