

EVERYTHING SHE NEVER WANTED

Kael McCallister has everything she needs. Her mom, four guy friends that would do anything for her, she's never wanted for anything. But when she arrives home from her last day of her junior year of high school to find her mom packing, everything starts to unravel. Off to Tennessee to care for a grandmother she didn't know existed, Kael is hurt and confused that her mother had kept family from her her whole life. Even worse, in Tennessee, she comes face to face with her father whom she'd believed was dead. Shortly after arriving, Kael meets Bryce, a young man with pain in his eyes that she immediately connects to. But while her heart is fluttering, he's running away as if she has poison shooting from her veins. Can Kael get past Bryce's reserve to discover why he's so afraid of her? And, more importantly, can she find a way to deal with all the confusion of her new family before it's too late and they're lost forever? Perhaps then, she'll have everything she never wanted.
