Not illustrated. 1900 Excerpt: ...of the certificate, November 18, 1858, but in 1858 or 1859 went to Iowa. The executors sought intelligence of him there, and were told that he was dead, and that the man most likely to be engaged in the alleged forgery of his signature was Mark Sacia, who had been associated with him in Iowa in various transactions. Sacia had been employed in the office of the Recorder of MORE FORGED CERTIFICATES. 137 Pocahontas County, and a large quantity of his writings were found there, including several county books. County officials who had long known both Sacia and Fish came on from Iowa, bringing and identifying these writings as Sacias, and after examining the marriage certificate swore that, in their opinion, it was written by Sacia. They had observed his intimacy with Fish in Iowa, and had seen him imitate Fish's signature by holding a paper against the window and tracing over it with a pencil. They swore that Sacia had engaged in several culpable transactions in Iowa, and had finally fled the State, secreted in a dry-goods box, to escape punishment for the forgery of Lyons County bonds. It was ascertained, through the aid of the Chief of the Bureau of Engraving at Washington, D. C, Mr. Casilliar, that the engraved blank upon which the alleged marriage certificate was written could not have been in existence at the time of the alleged date of the certificate in 1858, as the plate from which it was printed underwent very material alteration in 1862, and that, therefore, no such blanks could have existed until after that date. Although this fact seemed conclusively proved, it was sought to overthrow it by the production of other marriage certificates of even a prior date, written upon a blank printed from the same plate, and that, therefore, the testimony concerni...
