

Autumn 2015 Journal of the Order of Buddhist Contemplatives

The quarterly journal provides those studying or interested in Zen in our lineage with teaching, encouragement and news from around our groups and temples of our Order. It also provides a sense of the wider community or trainees as it contains contributions from both monks and householders, women and men, young and old, from anywhere across the US, UK, Canada, Germany and the Netherlands. It has been available as a paper journal available by subscription for over 40 years and was formatted as a digital issue in Spring 2014.
