

Studies in Christian Philosophy: Being the Boyle Lectures, 1920 (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from Studies in Christian Philosophy: Being the Boyle Lectures, 1920I need hardly say that the studies printed in this volume make no pretension to exhaustiveness. The reader will not find here even the outlines of a system of philosophy or theology; and he will probably be as conscious as their author that many questions are raised which are not fully discussed, while others which might have been relevant are passed over altogether. It was necessary, if the argument was to be pursued to the point where I intended to leave it, to press swiftly forward over some of the ground; but I hope that I may have an opportunity of considering some of these topics in the two succeeding courses of Boyle Lectures which will deal with Revelation and Incarnation. My main object in these lectures has been to suggest that Christian doctrine rests upon a few simple affirmations of a philosophical character, and to indicate a line of thought which seems to lead to the conclusion that these affirmations are rational.About the PublisherForgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
