

C.G. Jung and Nikolai Berdyaev: Individuation and the Person: A Critical Comparison

This book explores C. G. Jungs psychology through the perspective of the existential philosopher Nikolai Berdyaev, drawing striking parallels between Jungs theory of individuation and Berdyaevs understanding of the person. Placing Jung and Berdyaev firmly within the context of secular humanism, Nicolaus draws on their personal experiences of individuation to show how both writers seek to enable a renewal of our self-understanding as persons in a post-religious society. Topics of discussion include: the foundations of Berdyaevs personalism, Jungs psychological interpretation of the Christian God-image, individuation and the ethics of creativity. C. G. Jung and Nikolai Berdyaev: Individuation and the Person offers a fresh perspective on the ethical implications of Jungs theory and serves also as an introduction to Berdyaevs thought. As such this book will appeal to analytical psychologists, scholars engaged with Jungian thought and all those interested in the interface between spirituality and depth psychology.
