

Bullet and Shot in Indian Forest, Plain and Hill: With Hints to Beginners in Indian Shooting (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from Bullet and Shot in Indian Forest, Plain and Hill: With Hints to Beginners in Indian Shooting. The Author hopes that, in spite of the many able works upon Indian Sport which have been written, a welcome may yet be accorded to the present effort to supply what he believes to be a want, viz., reliable and detailed information for the use of beginners in Indian Shooting. He also trusts that brother sportsmen and the general reading public may derive some pleasure from the perusal of his personal experiences. The Author first went to India in the autumn of 1876, remained for five years in Assam and Sylhet, and then, having been offered an appointment in the forest department of the Mysore State, he accepted the same and entered upon his duties in Mysore upon the first day of the year 1882.
