

Corn-fed with Rice on the Side: A light-hearted view of daily life as a Korean Adoptee

Corn-fed with Rice on the Side is a collection of stories about growing up as a Korean adoptee. It takes a humorous and light-hearted view on daily life as an adoptee and shines a unique perspective on adoption. Adoptees, whether international or domestic, will find strength and self-assurance in these relatable stories that provide hope, inspiration and joy. For non-adoptees, it will provide great awareness and understanding of how they see, interact and communicate with adoptees in the future. This book is about the common journey we all take growing up, going through different phases of life, but from a Korean adoptees perspective. Its a truthful look at the life of a Korean adoptee.
