

Covering McKellen

WINNER OF THE 2011 THEATRE BOOK PRIZE Shakespeares greatest play, directed by the most experienced and acclaimed director in the land and starring one of our finest actors at the very peak of his powers... What could possibly go wrong? The stage is set for what promises to be one of the greatest tours in the history of theatre. A whole host of stars led by Sir Ian McKellen and Sir Trevor Nunn set off to take the world by storm with their new production of King Lear only to endure injuries, critical backlash and almost constant controversy. As understudy to the King himself, Westons frank and funny account takes us right through from the London rehearsals, to a Stratford Season, out across the globe and back to the glittering West End. Punctuated with hilarious celebrity anecdotes, insightful travelling tales, and lessons for any aspiring thespian, Weston deftly lifts the curtain on the Royal Shakespeare Companys much heralded tour and reveals the chaos underneath.
