

The Aeneid - A Modern Prose Version of The Classic Roman Epic, A Tale of Romance, Love and Violence.

Virgil's Aeneid is one of the great masterpieces of western literature. It tells the story of Aeneas, mortal son of the goddess Venus and the Trojan prince Anchises, who escapes from Troy after its destruction by the Greeks and together with a small band of followers sets off in search of a new home. Retaining all the excitement and vitality of the original epic poem, PJ Goddard's modern prose version of the story is a perfect introduction to this classic tale and will delight contemporary readers both young and old.
