

Dias Story Cloth: The Hmong Peoples Journey of Freedom, translated in White and Green Hmong Dialects: Diav Daim Paj Ntaub Dab Neeg / Dlav Dlain Paaj Ntaub Lug Nruag

Dia Chas story is shared by many Hmong Americans who made a long journey to freedom. The story cloth stiched by her aunt and uncle describes the Hmong peoples long and dangerous journey. For Hmong people, story cloths are a bridge between past and present. For all Americans, Dias Story Cloth is a universal story of the search for freedom. This bilingual edition is part of the Hmong Translation Initiative coordinated by Motherread.Fatheread MN, a curriculum-based family literacy program of the Minnesota Humanities Commission (MHC). The purpose of this project is to help Hmong families develop literacy skills in their first language as well as in English. Because of the Moob Ntsuab (Green Mong) and Hmoob Dawb (White Hmong) dialects are different, the translation committee has translated the English text into both. The Hmong text is featured next to the English, and the books original artwork is maintained.
