

Celebrate Easter

In addition to three dramas detailed below, Celebrate Easter offers speeches and recitations for children from preschool through elementary grades for the seasons of Lent and Easter, for spring time, and for Mothers Day and Fathers Day. Hosanna! Alleluia! is a readers theater piece that can be done using children in grades three and up. It is perfect for involving the whole Sunday school or in a worship setting. Running time: eight minutes. Sunrise! is a full-length play written with middle school students in mind, but it can also include younger children in the chorus. Twenty-two speaking parts, nine scenes. Running time: forty minutes. The Easter Story and Go and Tell are both simple dramas for elementary students that can be performed with few props and few actors. They are easily added to worship services or Sunday school assembly times. Running time: eight minutes.
