

A LIFE IS: A JAR OF STRAWBERRY JAM

---Has to survive from HIV and people judge, makes Sean has thought about his big-bro-Doctor: why Theo always buys me this strawberry jam? Skeptic and always feels sorry as a parasite for Theo. This orphan of half-Asian-half-American never wants to face the world in positive side when people always judge him based on his condition. In fact, Theo always tries everything to make his life longer. Sean even offers Theo every day to stop all medication because it is useless. No any significant progress appears! So, its better just let him die, slowly, then the problem is over. But, the life is not always bitter, right? Sometime sweet and sometimes sour, just like a jar of strawberry jam. Seans favorite snack. ---And its happening. Reality adds more agony for Sean when Theo is trapped in case of malpractice: makes his patient died. The consequences are: hes losing his job as surgeon, losing governments subsidy of his research which means stop Seans medication, and imprisoned for 17 years. Told you, I better die than make your lifes suck. Sean will do anything to set his big-bro-Doctor free from slander by using all his saving and selling their fancy apartment. Including pushes himself to the limit in the middle of Christmas Night.
