

Arizona Elk and Southwest Hunting

I have hunted North American big game for twenty five years using a 25-06; long considered a light-weight varmint cartridge. Most shots at big game were one-shot kills using a single shot 25-06 rifle. My early boyhood hunting was in the Dakotas. After moving to the Southwest, I hunted big game in California, Arizona, Colorado, New Mexico and offshore Santa Catalina island. In this book I have included some hunting lore describing hunts and critters in the Southwestern deserts.
