

Frame Change: A Nina Bannister Mystery (The Nina Bannister Mysteries Book 5)

Nina Bannister loves to paint, and she thinks her hobby is painless enough. But she is wrong. Her love of doing seascapes leads to a friendship with a young ex docent from The Chicago Art Museum--and to their entry into the murky and dangerous world of international art smuggling. Can she save her young friend, who has been kidnapped to the mountains of southern Austria? Can she determine the identity and motives of the mysterious Red Claw? Can she see the real painting that is hidden beneath the false one? Her success in these matters--indeed her very survival--depend on her ability to perform a last ditch Frame Change!
