

Girl Unbound: In Despair (Volume 2)

The Girl Unbound series is a poetic work written with deep thought and attention to the emotions and human nature that drives us all. It seeks to explore the most extreme ends of the same emotion- love. On one end of the scale we have passionate heights of bliss and euphoria, and on the opposite is deep desperation, anger, rage, and despair. How do we relate to these little spoken of heights in feeling? Why do we choose to keep them stifled and silent when they so often drive us into action? Girl Unbound puts a spotlight not so much on love as we have come to perceive it, but as experienced through an intense spectrum of life and experience.
