Is True?: Everybody talks to God at least once. To some He talks back.

In our changing world where we are given an explanation of, It happened for a reason or It was Gods will, to explain things we cant. We, as believers, go to great lengths to protect that which we believe to be the truth. Truth, as does the Bible, has many interpretations. In order for us to believe in what we believe to be a truth, we must first search our innermost thoughts to rationalize. Only through rationalizing can we discover and be comfortable with our beliefs. Upon discovering our beliefs, we associate and attach them to a religion for validation and protection, religion being defined as group worship, Power in numbers. When you truly worship something, you would die or follow someone to their death for a truth, especially when someone has your back, ergo church power and terrorists. Each religion masks the real truth equally. Nora L. Caulder
