

Virgins Triangle (Caribbean Writers)

Juxtaposing references to Freud and eye-liner, Icarus and super-glue, Virgins Triangle gives a humorous commentary on contemporary relationships and Caribbean journalism. Giselle Karan is twenty-six, attractive-and a virgin. When she meets Vishnu and Robert, men at opposite ends of the social spectrum, she begins to wonder if this condition is only temporary. But, as the Trinidad Carnival approaches, Giselle becomes increasingly confused about which man she should choose: the journalist or the construction worker. Only the sharp wit of the calypso offers a way out of this virgins triangle.
