

Limits to Liberation After Apartheid: Citizenship, Governance and Culture in South Africa

The post-apartheid public sphere in South Africa has been characterised by race tensions and distrust. Socio-economic inequalities and structural unemployment are contributing to widespread crises. In addressing the conceptual and empirical questions relating to the transition to democracy, the contributors to this volume take the questions of culture and identity seriously, drawing attention to the creative agency of citizens of the new South Africa. They raise important questions concerning the limits of citizenship and procedural democracy. STEVEN L. ROBINS is Professor of Social Anthropology in the University of Stellenbosch North America: Ohio U Press; South Africa: David Philip (PB)
