

Mitch Miller

[...] Looking down on the Sand Bank By this time we had come to a pretty high bank about a hundred yards from the mill. We heard voices and looked down on the sand bank, and there were about fifty men sittin or standin around. And there was my pa. So I says, I cant go down there, Mitch, my pa will whip me or drive me away. I know for certain he wouldnt want me to see this. Well, says Mitch, whats the difference? Were not moren 75 feet away from em and can see everything and hear everything if theres anything to hear. So lets just lie down here in the grass and take it easy, and look down on em and watch it. So we did. There seemed to be some arrangin of things. My pa[...].
