

Dispensationalism: A Biblical Examination

Mr. Griffin provides a straightforward account of foundational prophetic issues in the Bible. His book explains the meaning of the binding of Satan, the nature of the first resurrection, and the relationship of the Body of Christ to the Israel of God. Special attention is given to the popular teachings of a rapture before the tribulation and a kingdom on this earth after the return of Christ. Since the Holy Spirit is not the author of confusion, it is certain that God has spoken clearly and consistently on these issues. Mr. Griffin illustrates how the Spirit has designed the Bible to be a commentary on itself, and that a Christian should not allow a teacher to gain a position between us and the Bible. Mr. Griffin leads us through each point of the knowledge by means of simple and transparent demonstrations. His method of teaching is a breath of fresh air to Christians who are weary of teachers imposing their personal views upon the Bible, particularly in matters of Bible prophecy.
