

Tristan Wolf

One of the best childrens books of 2013, Tristan Wolf is a finalist of the Readers Favorite Awards! There is never a dull moment in Tristans life! Abandoned as a baby, he was raised by wolves and speaks the language of the forest creatures. But at eight years old, he discovers the truth - hes not an animal, hes a human! Despite his wolf mothers warnings, he sets out to find out how others like him live. He makes friends with a hungry coyote who agrees to take him to a farm where humans live - if he will reward his kindness with some tasty chickens. But Tristans mission leads him into trouble, and fast! He encounters a lot of nervous chickens, a worried ex-race horse, and a group of panicked pigs that will make his journey even more exciting. This is a great piece of childrens literature for kids who love adventures! With its fun story line, and intriguing illustrations, this book is sure is to become one of your kids favorite childrens books!
