

Rescuing Patty Hearst: Memories from a Decade Gone Mad

Rescuing Patty Hearst is an unflinching account of the dark days during which Holmans family was held hostage by her mothers delusions and the country was beset by the folly of the Watergate era . . . a startling memoir of a daughters harrowing sojourn in the prison of her mothers mind . . . and, finally, it lingers as a moving portrait of a young woman defined by her mothers illness -- until at last she rekindles a family love that had lost its way. Available only in Americana 5 Series.
