

Richie Ginther

Richie Ginther, like 1961 World Formula 1 Champion Phil Hill, was a native Californian. In fact both men were natives of Granada Hills. Ginther began a friendship with Hill that endured through their F1 careers in the 1960s. Richie started out as a mechanic for Hill when he took up sports car racing in the 1950s. Ginther drove the third Ferrari works car, behind Hill and German Wolfgang von Trips, as a Formula One driver in the early 1960s. He also drove for BRM and Honda through 1967. For Honda he achieved his only World Championship win, at Mexico City in October 1965.
