

SAS TARGET SHEIKH! SPECIAL FORCES VENGEANCE (5)

After a spate of terrorist atrocities in London, New York and Riyadh, the British Prime Minister had offered his resignation to the Queen in her role as Head of State. His request had been declined due to the unprecedented state of emergency. What the monarch did not know was that her governments emergency Cobra crisis committee had already been using a former special forces unit to deal with sensitive problems in a speedier and more lethal fashion than official armed forces could be seen to engage in. Task Force Black could act outside the law. Cobra had then learned of the death of a member of the elite deniable unit and suspicion once again turned to talk of an anonymous assassin. A three man terror cell had been seen leaving the devastating attack at Heathrow Airport and the secretive government committee had decided to utilise every means possible to trace them before further carnage took place. Two London police officers, DCI Maurice Peters and DCI Jim Brannigan had been called in to add some old fashioned detective expertise to an already extensive intelligence operation. Would a mysterious, militant Sheikh hire an infidel to spread terror to aid his own ambition?
