

The Courthouse at Indian Creek: The First Five Years of the Greenbelt, Maryland, Federal Courthouse

On October 15, 1991 there was a groundbreaking ceremony for the construction of a federal courthouse in Greenbelt, MD. Three years later it was ready to do the business of dispensing justice and continuing the judicial traditions of the United States. This book looks at a five-year span of the courthouses activities and the fascinating cases that came across their collective benches.
