

A season of mixed blessings- Faith on trail Series.

Patti Chiappa will leave your heart feeling warm and your soul singing as you read about the lives of the people that live in Teardrop Falls. Patti Chiappa has done it again, she has written a masterpiece that is not only timely but will leave you feeling thankful for every blessing in your life. James Anderson is only five years old, when he loses his parents in tragic car crash. On the night he loses his parents, he meets a little boy named Emmanuel. But there is something very different about Emmanuel. James is the only one that can see him. When a nurse hears James talking to no-one- She grows concerned that James has suffered a mental breakdown after losing his parents. The boy is labeled as crazy, but when a well-respected doctor starts believing in Emmanuel also the town is turned upside down. The faith of James and the Doctor is put on trial for the entire world to examine. Will both of them be labeled as crazy? Will their faith be enough to see them through the trail? Will the good doctor have the courage to stand up for his faith, even though he might lose everything? Will Emmanuel reveal himself to the non-believers? Follow James as his faith in Emmanuel is tested through-out his life as he battles in WW2, falls in love, loses people he loves, becomes a P.O.W. and more. I challenge everyone to read this book and not be moved. This book will be loved by Christians and Non-Christians alike.
