

The Index of Middle English Prose Handlist IX: Manuscripts in the Ashmole Collection, Bodleian Library, Oxford

More than 700 manuscripts reflect Ashmole's life-long passions: heraldry and the sciences of his day: astrology, alchemy, geomancy, medicine; well over 100 contain items in Middle English. There are manuscripts of great interest, such as the Ashmole Bestiary, but the important items in Middle English are no less noteworthy. Here we find the unique copy of an English translation of Bernard of Gordon's Lilium medicinae; a codex, Ashmole 59, entirely in the hand of John Shirley; a Wycliffite Bible and a copy of the Pore Caytif. Along with many anonymous pieces of popular astrology, there is an English translation of John Ashendens' Introductory, several copies of John of Burgundy's plague tract, and an elegant copy of Henry Daniels' Liber uricrisiae. There are also two copies of The Brut, and anthology manuscripts collecting vast arrays of herbal medicine, astrological techniques and alchemical procedures. L.M. ELDRIDGE was formerly Professor in the Department of English at the University of Ottawa.
