

The Silent Treatment

The Silent Treatment Harlowe Hovelmonger is having a very bad year and it couldn't be happening to a more rotten guy. Hovelmonger owes a pile of money to bookies and bankers who mean to collect. To balance his books and pay off his debts he intends to throw the lovely and chatty Bethany Angel into the street with her sister Lilith. When he discovers Bethany is about to inherit a fortune he decides to take her as his wife and then take her fortune! Hovelmonger wagers Bethany that she will be unable to say silent for one week she wins she keeps her home. If she loses she becomes his wife. Can Bethany's childhood sweetheart Camp Braverman save her? Melodramas are widely popular entertainment events! They provide excellent fund-raisers for any organization. They can be performed in church basements, school gymnasiums, dance halls, or any space large enough to seat a few people with space for a stage. They require a minimum of set pieces and furniture and can easily and inexpensively be costumed by a visit to a thrift store. Melodramas are sure to be a hit with your organization! This melodrama has been successfully produced in many theatre venues. A modest $35.00 royalty fee includes one reproducible script with a 20 copy limitation and permission for unlimited performances for a 365 day period. A spectacular value when compared with other publishers royalty fees!
