

The Voice in Creation

This book deals with the purpose of mans existence. It gives valid answers to some very important questions. Is there a God that created the universe and the earth including mankind? Does that God have a purpose for creating the human race? If so what is that purpose? Does God reveal it to man, or does God expect man to discover it? If God reveals it how does man receive Gods revelation. Does Gods purpose concern the human race or the individual? Is Gods revelation given to a select few or is it available for all of mankind? If it is available to all of mankind why do the masses rely upon select men to inform them of Gods purpose? If the answer to questions such as these then you will be most interested in reading this book.
