

More Microcars

Microcars enjoyed a period of popularity during the 20 years following the end of World War II. While larger motor manufacturers struggled with the difficulty of resuming production and wrangled with the handicap of raw material shortages, microcar makers adopted, adapted, and exploited the technological advances accelerated by the demands of a world in conflict. In this intriguing book, Tony Marshall has uncovered a selection of cars from Britain, Germany, the Netherlands, Australia, and America, including the Heinkel, Trojan, Nobel, Fuldomobil, Frisky, Lightburn, Berkeley, Peel, Trident, AC, Gordon, Pashley, Dornier, Zundapp, Brutsch, Shelter, King Midget, and Crosley. Entertaining and informative, More Microcars is an amusing and informative read for every motoring enthusiast.
