

Learning To Love

Relationships play a key role in every aspect of life and they can sometimes offer the most challenges. Author Crystal Thomas is a renowned speaker, coach and author who helps every reader understand the importance of putting time and energy into loving themselves first in order to be able to create and maintain happy, successful relationships in both their personal and business lives. Beginning with an introduction that connects the reader with her own personal journey, to pages that are filled with quotes, affirmations and questions that will take each person into the core of who they are and have them coming out better for the journey, Thomas conveys the message that we all have the power to create our own lives every moment of every day. Thomas proclaims, The journey to discovering and loving the very special person that you are is the most important pilgrimage you will ever take in your life. Take time to enjoy this magical ride!
