

General History of Africa volume 4: Africa from the 12th to the 16th Century (Unesco General History of Africa (abridged)) (v. 4)

The twelfth to the sixteenth centuries constitute a crucial phase in the continents history, and a period in which written records became more common. The period covered by this volume has several major themes: the triumph of Islam; the extension of trading relations; cultural exchanges and human contacts; and the development of kingdoms and empires. The series is co-published in Africa with seven publishers, in the United States and Canada by the University of California Press, and in association with the UNESCO Press.
