

The Welcome Light (The Nicholson Quartet)

Glasgow in the early 20th century is the setting for this novel by the author who has been praised as Scotland's Catherine Cookson. Only love for their son holds Kirsty and Craig Nicholsons stormy marriage together. But when a crippling disease strikes the child, Craigs adamant male pride turns to tenderness and concern, and Kirsty, drained by worry and overwork, seeks comfort in the arms of her new business partner. Only a series of near-tragic events brings Kirsty to a final, unexpected confrontation and a decision where her heart really lies. This concludes the story set in Glasgow in the early 20th century that began in the Good Provider, The Asking Price and The Wise Child.
