

Humor und Religiosität in der Moderne (German Edition)

Dieser Band versammelt neuere Forschungsergebnisse zum Thema Humor. Humor scheint eine Möglichkeit zu sein, um Religiosität unter den Bedingungen der westlichen Moderne zu artikulieren, also gerade in Anerkennung von Religionskritik und Sakularisierung. Die Revision mehr oder weniger kanonischer theoretischer wie künstlerischer Beiträge zum Humor von Jean Paul und Kierkegaard über Moritz Lazarus und Harald Hoffding bis zu Freud und Musil mit besonderer Rücksicht auf religiöse Implikationen kann daher zu einer Selbstvergewisserung und zu einer Theorie der modernen Kultur beitragen.
